

Fourth Grade Lead Teacher: Brittany Guardia

Ryan Bartley: Christmas is a b-day party for Jesus. Christmas is about having fun, getting presents, and giving presents. Christmas is playing in the snow, having a Christmas party at my house, and having fun with my family.

Mason Bennett: Christ is our father; Hot chocolate is yummy; Rudolph the red nose reindeer; I love Christmas; Santa Claus is fat; Teddy bears remind me of Santa; Mary's little boy; Angels; Spending time with Jesus (acrostic poem)

Ellie Kate Cameron: Christmas is a happy time to love and serve Jesus. Now it's time for ribbons and hot cocoa, with ice to cool it down. We love to sing carols and celebrate the birth of the teeny little baby coming to save us all! He was born in a manger, quiet, with the cattle lowing, the baby awakes, but the little Lord, no sound he makes! So, that's what Christmas means to me. Happy Holidays to all!! (modified acrostic poem)

Maximus Garcia: Christ was born: Here is the season that Christ was born: Red is the blood of Jesus Christ: Important gift from God: Saint Nicholas is a good story: Teddy Bears remind me of hot chocolate: Mary is the mom of Jesus Christ: Angels told the shepherds that Jesus was born: Spending time with my family (acrostic poem)

Harper Hurtig: Christmas is a birthday party for Jesus. Christmas is having fun with my family. Christmas is red and green Christmas lights, encouraging people, snowball fights with my family. Christmas is trusting the Lord with all your heart. Christmas is making cookies. Christmas is for all the people in the world. Christmas is celebrating with special people.

Colette Hyslop: Christmas is about Jesus's birthday. Christmas is all about being thankful, family time and giving. Christmas is making happy memories with your family.

Gibson Schroller: Christmas is about Jesus's birthday to me. Christmas is baking, shaping and decorating cookies to me. Christmas is about opening presents to me. Christmas is about seeing people to me.

Corbin Stodder: Christmas is giving and receiving. Christmas is a birthday party for Jesus. Christmas is baking cookies with my family. Christmas is giving gifts to the ones I love.

Aria Villarreal: Christmas is fun! Lots to do, lots to see, but... there is something even better to me; Jesus Christ's birthday! Hooray, Hooray! Yes, decorating is fun. Seeing the house, "all done!", you like to say. And oh, the presents, so grateful are we, and what's inside? I want to see! But the thing you MAY NOT forget, is that it is Jesus's day, not the presents that make this day so special.

Grady Ward: Christmas is preparing for Christ Jesus's birthday. The think I love about Christmas is opening the ornaments and looking at them. There are so many good memories! I also love decorating the house. The absolute best thing I love about Christmas is running out of the hallway and into the living room to look through the stockings.

Alexandria West: Christmas is a fun time of year. I love spending time with my family. Christmas is a birthday for Jesus Christ. Every year my Grammy and I look for the Christmas Star together.

Mayson Aroaz: Christmas is celebrating the holiday season and Jesus's birthday! I love Christmas so much! It's my favorite holiday. I love spending time with my family on Christmas. My grandma and I watch Christmas movies like, Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, together. I love it! My second favorite part is making cookies for Santa and when there are some left, I eat them. That's what Christmas means to me.

Ryan Brandau: Christmas is giving and getting gifts to celebrate Jesus's birthday. Christmas is the day I have fun with my presents. I run to the living room on Christmas morning to give and get gifts. I always have fun! Sadly, it always comes to an end. I always hug my parents and "Thank-You!", I say. Then I watch movies with them. (modified acrostic poem)

Cambry Courville: Christmas is all about Jesus's birthday. Christmas is about giving and spending time with your family. When it is Christmas, we have a tradition where we open our presents when all of our family members get to our house.

Emily Feiertag: Christmas is Jesus's birthday. Happy things happening. Receiving gifts and happy cheers. I have a great time with my sister and family. Time with my family and opening gifts. Merry Christmas! I hope everyone loves Jesus. Always eating candy canes. Snowman making is fun. I just love Christmas! (acrostic poem)

Ila Hargrave: Every year I go to my grandparent's house with all of my cousins. We do to church and watch a play. My grandma buys us Christmas pajamas to sleep in. I always sleep with my siblings. My favorite part of Christmas is playing games with my family and putting ornaments on the tree. I love the excitement of Christmas morning, but I love celebrating Jesus even more!

Alexia Jensen: Christmas means celebrating Jesus's birthday, giving gifts, and spending time with family.

Miranda Lapham: Christmas is a birthday party for Jesus. It is a fun time of year to spend time with our family.

Knox Reynolds: I think that Christmas is a beautiful time of the year. When you get to celebrate the birth of Jesus. I love being under the Christmas tree, opening presents. This is a beautiful time of the year because it means so much to me. I could not go one year without celebrating Christmas!

Chloe Schneider: Christmas reminds me of Jesus's birthday and having fun with my family. On Christmas Eve my whole entire family comes over to give us presents. Christmas is everything to me.

Giselle Schulte: Christmas is special to me because I can get together with my family. I like putting up the Christmas decorations. I also like Christmas because I like to see the smiles on my parents faces. What I like the most is that it is Jesus's birthday.

Zachary Sharma: What Christmas means to me is that we all see our family all in one day and celebrate Jesus's birthday. Christmas is enjoying a family dinner; opening presents by the tree; watching Christmas movies; eating cookies; listening to books; reading books; sitting by the fire; singing Christmas carols; and wishing everyone a Merry Christmas!

Wyatt Waxler: Christmas is Christ's birthday. Christmas is having fun, receiving gifts, and making Christmas cards. Christmas is American.
